

August Events in Snohomish County

August 11-12

- Stillaguamish Festival of the River and Pow Wow

River Meadows Park, Arlington

Contact: 360-435-2755 x22 or mperez@stillaguamish.nsn.us

The Stillaguamish Festival of the River & Pow Wow is a fun way to celebrate summer and the Pacific Northwest environment. Regional citizens and visitors share their experiences and learn from others about their culture, water quality, salmon, and the watershed. Featuring an entertainment stage for children, a scrumptious salmon barbecue prepared by the Stillaguamish Tribe, live music by a variety of local bands, and traditional Pow Wow drumming and dancing contests. This is a free, non-alcoholic event.

August 18-19

- Fresh Paint Festival of Artists at Work

Everett Marina Waterfront

Contact: 425-257-8380

Website: www.artscouncilofsnoco.org

Watch artists draw, paint, sculpt, sketch, assemble, letter, photograph, portray and illustrate at Everett's Waterfront. Enjoy the art, great music, fabulous food and the beautiful scenes of the waterfront, Sponsored by the Arts Council of Snohomish County.

August 23

- Monroe Fair Days Parade

179th/W Main to W Main /Blakeley

Contact: 360-794-5488 or misti@chamber-monroe.org

Parade Welcoming the 2007 Evergreen State Fair! This is a great community parade with something new to look forward to every year. There are animals, clowns, marching bands, novelty acts and community favorites. This year we are having a special entry entitled: "Pooch Parade". Be sure to come and see what 2007 will bring.

August 26

• Bothell RiverFest: Family fun & then some!

Bothell City Hall, 18305 101st Ave NE and surrounding areas

Contact: 425-486-7430

Website: www.ci.bothell.wa.us

A celebration of Bothell and all that it has to offer. A concert, family activities including inflatable amusements, car show, craft and merchants market, hobby & volunteer expo, city show & tell and more!

August 23 – September 3

• Evergreen State Fair

Evergreen Fairgrounds, Monroe

Contact: 360-805-6700 or 425-388-3200

Website: www.evergreenfair.org

This year is the centennial celebration! Monroe annually hosts one of Washington's largest fairs, the Evergreen State Fair. This eleven-day event runs in late August through Labor Day, where the competition for awards is serious, but the rides and entertainment are strictly for fun. From auto racing thrills to spectacular equestrian shows...there's always some fun going on at the Evergreen State Fairgrounds. The fairgrounds are also home to the Evergreen Speedway which features nationally recognized events and local racing.

For more events go to www.snohomish.org/events