

'Little Bit of Everything' Tour

*Snohomish County, Washington
Minutes North of Seattle*

Day 1

No visit to the Pacific Northwest is complete without a trip to the Future of Flight – Aviation Center and Boeing Tour. The Future of Flight is a unique interpretive facility designed to let visitors experience the marvel of commercial jet aviation and production. The packaged ticket includes a factory tour in the largest building in the world to the assembly of the 777 and the new 787 Dreamliner.

Lunch nearby in Mukilteo at Ivar's Mukilteo Landing. Feast on their famous seafood and delectable northwest cuisine while watching the Mukilteo-Whidbey Island Ferry come and go from the adjacent dock. Or head to the Edmonds waterfront to enjoy the view of the marina and the Olympic Peninsula while dining at Arnie's Restaurant or Anthony's Home Port & Beach Cafe restaurants for a delightful meal.

Explore and shop in Edmonds for a leisurely afternoon in this waterfront town. Stroll through the quaint garden stores, specialty shops and cozy coffee shops to please your palette and your hunger for scenic beauty.

If the artist within needs an outlet, the Urban Forms Design Center is just what you are looking for. Located in Bothell Country Village, the Urban Forms Design Center is an open-air glass blowing studio offering hands-on opportunities to experience and learn about glass art offering demonstrations, classes and programs. Viewing platforms available for groups to watch the artists do their work. While some are in glass programs, others can wander the delightful village; 45 specialty shops and restaurants housed in cozy farm-style buildings in a decidedly un-mall atmosphere. Instead of shopping in a modern center with sleek wide corridors, you'll wander winding brick paths and flower-lined boardwalks. Antiques, a full service day spa, glass blowing studio, wine tasting, restaurants and train rides make every visit to Country Village fun for all ages.

Day 2

The "I never knew shopping could be so much fun" Itinerary. On the national historic register for both their business and residential districts, the town of Snohomish is the "Antique Capitol of the Pacific Northwest". Stop by a riverfront café a delectable lunch, a cup of coffee and piece of pie, then stroll along historic streets and shop at one of the country and Victorian shops where over 450 antique dealers sell their treasures.

At Alderwood in Lynnwood, start a relaxing and fun day with a world famous Starbucks latte at The Terraces fireplace. Reacquaint yourself with a favorite store like Macy's, Nordstrom or Coldwater Creek, then check out The Village's one-of-a-kind shops and upscale retailers, or treat yourself to a rejuvenating spa treatment at Gene Juarez. If outlets are more to your liking, visit Seattle Premium Outlets in Tulalip (north of Everett) for upscale, brand-name designers at savings of 25% to 65% every day!

And while you're at Quil Ceda Village try your luck at the new Tulalip Casino! Indulge in fun and entertainment! Casino games, slot machines, live entertainment stage and gift shop will keep you busy after you dine at one of the restaurants on site. Tulalip Bay, a fine dining restaurant with an open view kitchen & woodstone hearth. Chef Dean Shinagawa presents classical cooking with a contemporary style, offering an exquisite culinary experience. An intimate wine room with inspiringly beautiful surroundings displays a Chihuly glass blown chandelier to enhance your dining atmosphere. Or for a more casual experience, The Eagles buffet offers international dishes of the finest cuisine, hand-picked from a myriad of exotic places as well as fresh seafood and traditional American delights. An in-house action bakery & exquisite desserts complete your dining experience.

Additional information:

Amy Spain
Snohomish County Tourism Bureau
909 SE Everett Mall Way, C300
Everett, WA 98208
(425)348-5802, extension 11
(888)338-0976
amy@snohomish.org
www.snohomish.org