Restroom facilities and plenty of parking for visitors.

Our center shares a space with the Arlington-Smokey Point Chamber of Commerce in the beautifully landscaped Pilchuck Plaza just off of Smokey Point Boulevard in Arlington, Washington-the perfect place to take a breath and gather information. Here visitors will find a wide variety of maps, brochures, and all kinds of information about Snohomish County, Washington State and beyond. Our friendly and knowledgeable volunteer Travel Counselors are ready to make recommendations that will make your stay here fun and memorable!

Within a few blocks of the center you will find all the services you need while traveling:

Lodging	Restaurants	Post office
Banks	Gas stations	Hardware store
Drug store	Grocery store	Espresso stands

In the Arlington-Smokey Point and surrounding area you can enjoy a small-town rural atmosphere, a bustling commercial area, as well as range of fun activities including:

- Seattle Premium Outlets
- Tulalip Casino
- Angel of the Winds Casino
- Historic Downtown Arlington
- Stillaguamish Valley Pioneer Museum
- NWEA Fly-In: the third largest experimental aircraft Fly-in in the country happens every July in Arlington
- Linda M. Byrnes Performing Arts Center
- Wenberg State Park on Lake Goodwin
- Local parks and trails for family fun

Arlington is 40 miles north of Seattle and 10 miles north of Everett.

We look forward to seeing you!
